SEEKING POLITICAL SALVATION.

The army of deserters from the democratic ranks is daily increasing. They are now numbered by the many thousands, and will reach tens of thousands before the campaign closes. The following names are added to the noble army of converts since we last went to press:

James Chime, a lifelong and prominent democrat of Columbus, Indiana, yesterday publicly announced himself as a convert to republicanism, and said he will support the entire republican ticket. This accession has caused consternation in the ranks of the democrats there.

Of newspapers that supported Mr. Cleveland in 1884 and do not support him now may be named, in Massachusetts the Boston Transcript, Advertiser, and Record, and in New York the Buffalo News, the Syracuse Herald, the Rochester Volksblatt, the Union Press, the Albany Times, and the New York Democrat.

Washington county, New York, gave in 1880 for president a republican majority of 3,634. In 1884 Blaine's plurality was 3,115. Davenport's plurality over Hill was 2,930. The majority for Harrison in Washington county this fall, it is confidently believed, will exceed 4,000. The number of changes of democrats to the republican side indicates even larger majority against Cleveland and free trade.

Seventy-five per cent of the insurance men of New York are for Harrison and Morton, and ten per cent acknowledge that they voted for Cleveland in 1884, but are now enthusiastic for Harrison and Morton.

William Rosch, Jr., chief engineer of the Glen Falls, New York fire department, and one of the most popular democrats of the village, has declared for Harrison and Morton and protection.

Charles R. Parks, vice-president and general manager of the Glen Falls, New York, Paper company, and his brother George E. Parks, superintendent of the company, are out and out for Harrison and protection this fall. Three years ago Fred R. Parks was elected a trustee of the village on the democratic ticket. The Messrs. Parks have been considered among the most influential democrats in the village.

Four years ago, when Grover Cleveland was running for the presidency, he had no more ardent supporter than Mr. James Middlethigh of Metuchen, N. J. Mr. Middlethigh is a member of the New York Stock Exchange, and an influential man in New Jersey. He declares that he will not support Cleveland this year, but will lend all the aid he can to the election of Harrison. He opposes Cleveland because of his tariff policy.

The Rev. Marsh, pastor of the Methodist church at No. 4 Ave., New York, does not hesitate to declare: "I believe in prohibition and have voted for prohibition candidates. But I consider the issue of this campaign too important to throw away my vote. Of the prohibitionists here I know of only one who says he will not vote for Harrison and Morton, and he may come over to Harrison before election. I believe in the principles of prohibition, but the interests of the country demand that I shall vote for Harrison and Morton. Nothing would be accomplished by voting the prohibition national ticket."

Patrick T. O'Heaney was the labor candidate for congress last fall in the Albany, New York, district. He said to a reporter of the Albany Journal: "I am for Harrison and Morton because I believe they represent the best interests of the American institutions. Mr. Cleveland is for free trade. If we have free trade we will surely increase the commercial prosperity of England. If we have simply a partial reduction of the tariff England's manufactured goods will be introduced into this country. I am for the best interests of Ireland. I am opposed to Cleveland and will support General Harrison because I am opposed to everything English."

POOR DEMOCRATS.
The democrats imagine that the only hope they have this year lies in misrepresentation—in pushing falsehoods to the front and keeping the truth in the rear. And instead of making this a campaign of "intellect" as the chairman of the democratic committee announced a few weeks ago it has been turned into a campaign of abuse and deception. As an illustration of the democratic methods take, for instance, the following from the Madison Democrat, of a week ago:

CAMBRIDGE, Wis., Sept. 18.—Here, where W. D. Hoard is so well known, there is quite a general revolt against him. Among the republicans who are working to defeat him are Dr. L. W. Clarke, P. R. Bilead, C. Olson, A. Gortman, A. B. Warren, C. A. Bilead, A. Holman, James Scott, and A. J. Allen. All will vote for Morgan.

A gentleman who saw the dispatch wrote to an acquaintance, a leading business man of Cambridge, asking him whether there was any foundation for it. The answer did not at all surprise the republican, but it doubtless bothered the democrats considerably, to be caught in such a bold attempt to deceive the people. Here is the answer:

CAMBRIDGE, Wis., Sept. 18, 1888.—In answer to yours of yesterday, I will say that I, Bilead, C. Olson, P. R. Bilead, A. J. Allen are all Board men. There is no such person as A. B. Warren in this vicinity. Dr. Clark and James Ledy I have not seen, but think they will support Mr. Hoard. A. Gortman and Holman are prohibitionists. There is not a republican that I know of who is doing anything to defeat Mr. Hoard.

On the other hand I have spoken with several democrats who will support him, and are doing so enthusiastically. There is no more foundation for democratic gains than there is in this, we are perfectly safe for 30,000 in the state. But the severest condemnation to the dispatch printed in the Madison Democrat, comes from three of the gentlemen who are said to have deserted the republican ticket. The Cambridge News republishes the base dispatch with this addendum:

We, the undersigned, contradict the above statements as false and untrue in every particular, as far as we are concerned.

E. A. BOSTAD,
C. OLSON,
A. GORTMAN,
A. J. ALLEN.

To which the State Journal adds: This it has shown beyond the possibility of successful contradiction that the dispatch is utterly false as regards E. A. Bilead, C. Olson, A. Gortman, P. R. Bilead, A. J. Allen and A. B. Warren, while facts as far as known indicate that it indeed "does not contain a single spark of truth."

100,000 CALLERS.
In all the history of political campaigns in this country there has nothing ever been known like the rush of people to pay their respects to General Harrison. It is just as the Cincinnati Commercial says, that no citizen of the United States was ever called upon by such multitudes at his own house as General Benjamin Harrison, the republican candidate for the presidency. It is estimated that since his nomination he has had more than 100,000 callers besides those from his own town, and he seems never to be weary of receiving them and shaking hands with them and talking to them, and his talks are admirable speeches, brief but full of weighty matter and displaying wonderful resources.

From the contemplation of this splendid public endorsement of General Harrison, how strange it is to turn to the condition of Mr. Cleveland. No delegation of workmen has called on him. The farmers have not left their fields to shake him by the hand and bid him God-speed. No miners from the coal regions have hastened to Washington to show their respect and express their confidence for the democratic candidate for the presidency. The manufacturers of beer who held a convention in Washington did call upon Cleveland, and no doubt he felt flattered by the call. But that class of men, the trusts and the makers of liquor having nothing to do with Harrison. All their sympathies run out toward the other candidate.

About bounding Thurman, from the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette: "There is a scheme, born of the desperation of the democratic party, to get rid of Thurman and stick Gray to Indiana on the ticket."

"The fact of the idea of abandoning the old bandwagon in the middle of the big road while it rains shows the condition to which the democratic party is reduced. As the current runs the democratic party is defeated. The Oregon, Vermont, and Maine news shows the public drift. The democrats confidently claimed Oregon and were in expectation of a vote in their favor when the thunderbolt from the North Pacific struck the St. Louis convention.

"Possibly it would be a grand strategy to bounce Thurman, but there is no possibility of changing the result by that or any other action of the party."

trader in this country ashamed of hiring it. It was Mr. Blaine who said that the workingmen of America could go to Europe and see the condition of the laboringmen in that country, that not one of them would vote the democratic ticket and free trade. And Captain Anderson, of Kansas City, a prominent railway man and a democrat, who went to Europe last spring, said on his return that he was thoroughly convinced that the republican doctrine of protection was best for the workingmen, and therefore would support Harrison and Morton.

RACINE, Wis., Sept. 21.—The democratic convention for the First district will be held at Beloit, October 4 to 2 p. m. There is a very strong feeling throughout the district for Jas. B. Doe, of Janesville, who was temporary chairman of the democratic state convention.—Milwaukee Journal.

There is no democrat in the First district that the republicans would rather see nominated for congress than Mr. Doe, Jr., and in his candidacy for the nomination he will have the united support of every republican paper in the district. He should be nominated. In free trade extravaganzas he is the Frank Earl of the First district. He gives in his speeches such a beautiful picture of Europe as a workman's paradise, and so much to say that it is bitter and un-American about the present condition of labor in the United States, that it will be fun for the republicans to have him in the field as a democratic candidate. We hope that the Milwaukee Journal and other democratic papers will do what they can to secure Mr. Doe's nomination.

Good authority estimates that Colorado will give a 10,000 republican majority. The democrats are spending a great deal of money to swing Montana in their favor. This fact about their doubt about holding it in line.—Inter Ocean.

Montana is a territory and does not vote on the presidential question; but then that makes no difference. There is just as much hope for the democrats to carry the north as there is for them to carry Montana.

The production of gold in the United States between the years 1848 and 1857 was over $605,000,000, yet the free traders say the panic of 1857 was due to a scarcity of specie. Where did all the gold go to? It went to England to pay for goods which should have been made at home.

"The indications are," the New York World remarks, "that Mr. Miller will be quite celebrated when the campaign closes." So here is another democratic paper predicting republican success in New York.

How shocking this step is from the Philadelphia Press. It is just perfectly awful: "Doubtless Mr. Cleveland's delay in opening the war on Canada is due to his difficulty in procuring a substitute."

An exchange that has given the democratic platform through study, gives it the right interpretation. Free trade for the north and protection enough in the south to keep her "solid."

BASE-BALL.
Result of the Games Played on Friday in Various Cities.
National League games on Friday resulted as follows: At Chicago, first game—Washington, 8; Chicago, 2; second game—Chicago, 10; Washington, 9. At Pittsburgh—Pittsburgh, 3; Boston, 1 (ten innings). At Indianapolis—Philadelphia, 8; Indianapolis, 2. At Detroit—Detroit, 3; New York, 3 (game called on account of darkness).

Western Association: At Milwaukee—St. Paul, 5; Milwaukee, 2.
American Association: At Cincinnati—Brooklyn, 6; Cincinnati, 2. At Louisville—Louisville, 7; Louisville, 4.
Both Are Dead.
OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 22.—A case of poisoning is reported to have occurred on the shores of Lake Temiskamingue, north of Mattawan, on Sunday afternoon last, which resulted in the death of a man named Dowin and his wife, aged 40 and 30 years respectively. It appears that for some time past Mrs. Dowin has been anxious to get rid of her husband. On Sunday Dowin did not feel well, and his wife gave him a dose of strychnine, which she said was poison. She was suspicious, and, to satisfy him, the woman took a spoonful herself, and afterwards he took a large dose. Some time afterwards a neighbor found them in an alarming condition and went for assistance. When he returned they were both dead.

Mail Robbers Arrested.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 22.—John Owens, a negro, the accomplice of John Hursey, who was arrested for the robbery of a mail pouch, was taken into custody by Government officers here yesterday. Owens made a full confession after his arrest. He said that the letters were divided equally and that he got as his share a $500 check, a postal money-order and some money.

Volcano in Action.
LONDON, Sept. 22.—The volcano on the island of Stromboli is in a state of active eruption. Steamers passing the island report that instead of the usual thin vapor which arises from the crater, there is a constant column of flame. The deck of the steamer Duchess of Sutherland, while passing the island on her way to Naples, was covered with ashes. Clouds of dust surrounded the mountain for a distance of ten miles.

Pleased with the New Ships.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Secretary Whitney arrived here yesterday morning and took a trip through the city during which he inspected the Vesuvius, the Yorktown, the Dispatch and the Baltimore, new building at Cramp's ship-yards. He expressed himself as being delighted with the progress made and the workmanship on the vessel.

Texas Republicans.
FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 22.—The Republican State convention adopted resolutions endorsing Harrison and Morton, denouncing political outrages in Washington and Fort Bend counties, declaring against putting out a State ticket or endorsing any other ticket and adjourned.

Gone to the Mountains.
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Cleveland and Miss Polson passed through Jersey City last evening en route from Washington to the Adirondacks.

TERRIFIC STORMS.

Disastrous Floods Sweep Over Parts of Algeria.

HUNDREDS OF LIVES REPORTED LOST.

A Hurricane in the Bahama Islands Destroys Much Property—Several Vessels Wrecked—A Small but Lively Cyclone in Arkansas.

MANY WERE DROWNED.
MADRID, Sept. 21.—Terrible floods are prevailing in the province of Almeria. Hundreds of lives have been lost and a great number of persons financially ruined.

DESTRUCTIVE IN THE BAHAMAS.
NASSAU, N. P., Sept. 17.—A severe hurricane passed over several of these islands on September 2 and 3. At Tagged Island eighteen houses were totally destroyed, twelve others nearly so, and scores were more or less injured. All the sailing, fishing and trading schooners belonging to the island were either bilged or driven high on the shore. The water rose over four feet above the average spring tides, washing away great piles of salt aggregating over 60,000 bushels. The principal industry of the island is the making of salt for export. Two ships were in port at the time, receiving cargoes of salt. The barkentine Glutha, of St. John, N. Y., with 12,000 bushels of salt, dragged her anchors and went ashore. At Atkins Island thirteen houses were blown down. The schooners were in port at the time. The St. John had her spars cut away. The Royal was completely wrecked. A number of vessels are missing and their fate is unknown.

A QUARTER ANCHORED.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 22.—A small cyclone passed over Mammoth Springs, Fulton County, at noon Friday. Seven houses were wrecked, many trees were blown down and corn and crops much damaged. Several people were injured, but no one is reported killed.

CROPS IN THE NORTHWEST.

The wheat yield of Minnesota and Dakota One-third Less Than Last Year.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 22.—The condition of crops in the Northwest shows a large falling off. The more conservative judges place the yield for Minnesota and Dakota at 33-1-3 per cent below that of last year, and there is a general reduction in quality, as compared with last year's wheat, of 10 per cent. The weather has continued good for harvest work during the last week. At St. Paul, Minn., the wheat is nearly all thrashed. Throughout the Red river valley the yield is in full blast, except in the extreme northern portion, where it has just begun. Minnesota wheat promises to turn out a very good yield, which will grade largely No. 1 northern. In the Red river valley and Northern Dakota the yield has a wide range and is of every grade, but the proportion of No. 1 hard is greater than was anticipated.

In the section which felt most severely the effects of the early frost, including Thrall, Barnes, Grand Forks, Benson, Wash and other Dakota counties, there will not be over half a crop.

Advisers with regard to the oat crop show that it will be considerably larger than last year, on account of largely the escaped average. It is light in very many localities, while in others, especially in portions of Dakota and the Red river valley, it is turning out exceptionally well.

Barley appears to be a good crop all around. Flax does not seem to have been damaged extensively at any point. Corn in Southern Minnesota is ripening fast, and in some parts is ready for harvesting. It will be a fine crop.

A CLEVER SWINDLER.

He Succeeded in Swindling Two Illinois Parties to the Extent of Over $5,000.
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 22.—Through two grain deals in this city, who have been named as consignees, it is learned that a swindler representing himself as a member of the firm of Kizer Brothers, of Hammond, Ind., has victimized J. J. W. Holm, of Danville, Ill., to the extent of $4,000, and Bussey's bank of Urbana in the sum of $5,000 by means of forged bills of lading for wheat alleged to have been shipped to Detroit. The case is now in court. The case is one in which the swindler depended purely upon the false pretense as to his identity.

MISS IN INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 22.—Roger Q. Mills, the Texas Congressman, addressed a very large meeting at Thompson Hall last night, there being nearly 2,000 persons present. He was given a cordial reception, and his speech of an hour and a half was frequently applauded. Mr. Mills evidently caught the closest interest of his Democratic hearers, as they regard him as the best speech from their standpoint made here thus far during the campaign.

Starvation in Labrador.

QUEBEC, P. Q., Sept. 22.—Four more families fleeing from starvation in Labrador have been brought up by a schooner. They tell a story of the straits to which they were reduced. One of seven children who died, that he had been obliged to abandon his house, which cost him $400, and all his furniture, as he could not find a local purchaser for them, though he offered to sell the house for $10.

Torn to Two by a Train.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 22.—A special from Seneca, Ky., says: S. J. Hattery, a farmer on the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific railroad at this place, was run over and instantly killed at Oakland, Tenn. He was torn in two near the center of the body and lived but a moment afterwards.

Liabilities of $1,000,000.

LOXPEX, Sept. 22.—The liabilities of Calvert Bros., of Halifax, vessel factors, who failed recently, amount to $1,000,000 and their assets to $125,000. The firm bought on credit and sold for cash. John Calvert has absconded and a warrant has been issued for his arrest.
